OK, sounds like a plan. I will move my flex day, and short day if need be.

Let’s try to figure out our schedule and not involve management until we have our plan. I already have to deal with people in the office telling me how much time this and that takes. Is it me or doesn’t the OSC set site work and schedules?

Below is what I suggest. Travel on Saturday the 17th (7.5 hours travel comp with .5 hour lunch). Sunday you come in around noon. We tag and I go home. This way, I can travel on Sunday and you don’t go over your pay cap. You actually hit it right at the max. You just have to make sure your one 8 hour day is not in the mix for your 9 hour bi-weekly schedule.

By the way, September 18th is actually my preferred week in September. I have daytime response. Let me know what you think and then I can review the rest of the calendar.

What is your schedule now? 10 hours? Or 8?

I’m available on the 17th and 24th, so I could travel on that day, but here’s the problem: if I travel on the 17th, that means I’ll be working all day on the 18th (OT). My by-weekly paycap number is like 10-11hrs. therefore no OT hrs for the rest of the payperiod. I would ask EM but he called out SL today

Thanks Chris. I will review. However, are those days on Site or are your travel days part of that? For example, are you traveling on September 17 and September 24th?

Thanks

Eric, attached you will see my availability. I have noted all the days that I am available. I do have to schedule a trip to Puma in PR, but I can work around your schedule for that. Also please note that your calendar doesn't include November the 27th. So everything after that date is off 1 day.
